

Acceptance Criteria	Expected Result/Output	Pass/Fail
On the homepage, a user should be able to see the basic planet stats by hovering over a planet	A list of stats will display for the planet being hovered over	pass
On the homepage, a user should be able to see the full planet information by clicking on a planet	A view will pop up over the solar system showing the full information about the planet that was clicked on	pass
A user should be able to scroll through the solar system in an adventure view	Images of each planet will be displayed a relative distance away from the sun image in pixels, which the user can scroll to	pass
In the adventure view, a user should be able to see basic planet stats by hovering over a planet	A list of stats will display for the planet being hovered over	pass
In the adventure view, a user should be able to see the full planet information by clicking on a planet	A view will pop up over the solar system showing the full information about the planet that was clicked on	pass
In a planet information view, a user should be able to play a video about the planet	The video will start playing in the view	pass
The user should be able to exit the planet pop up information by clicking a button	The pop up view will disappear and the user should see what they were viewing previously	pass